Odilon Gilbert

Odilon Gilbert, 74, of 176 Madigan St., passed away Sunday evening, Oct. 11, at the St. Louis Hospital after being a patient there for 12 days.

Mr. Gilbert was born June 9, 1885 in St. George, P. Q., the son of Olivier and Angele Bolduc Gilbert. He was a member of St.
 Joseph parish, a resident of Berlin for 48 years and was self-employed as a woodsman until retiring in 1946.

Surviving relatives are his widow, Mrs. Marie Boulanger grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held this morning from St. Joseph Church at 9 o'clock with interment in Mt. Calvary Cemetery.

Due to the large number of young people, 150 strong, there were two scheduled hayrides.
 While one trip was being completed, the young people enjoyed games or were in the snack bar warming themselves around an old pot-bellied stove.

Before the second group of young people left, Rev. Sherburne Ray of the Baptist Church introduced Christina Hermanson, president of the Council, who spoke briefly and then introduced the secretary, Carole Rines, who read the Scripture.
 Miss Hermanson led the group in prayer.

"The large turnout of young people was of great joy to me," Miss Hermanson said. "As my first act during the present year, it has given me confidence that the young people of Berlin and surrounding areas will make this the best year the council has ever experienced."

Bloodmobile Receives 117 Pints Here

The Eagles didn't reach their goal of 200 pints at the bloodmobile, but they again pushed the total well over the quota.

One hundred and 17 pints of blood were donated in the Eagle-sponsored visit, boosting their total in 18 visits to 2,207 pints.

Two people, Ralph Peloquin and Harvey Roberge, gave their 16th pint of blood and joined the "Two Gallon Club." Mrs. Dorothy Vaillancourt and Eugene Dumont joined the "One Gallon Club" by donating their eighth pint of blood.
